

Constitution of AlgoBoost Society

I. Title:

The society shall be known as the “AlgoBoost Society” (abbreviated to ABS).

II. Aims:

The aims of the society shall be as follows:

- To organise events related technical interview preparation.
 - To promote the practice of coding challenges, data structures, and algorithms within the student community.
 - To organise and facilitate workshops, tutorials, and competitions for both beginners and advanced learners in the field of programming and problem-solving.

III. Affiliation:

The Society shall be affiliated to the following organisation:

- St Andrews University Students’ Association

IV. Membership:

Any matriculated student of the University of St Andrews shall be eligible to purchase Ordinary Membership to the society.

- Anyone, including people not affiliated with the University, may attend any events hosted by AlgoBoost Society unless stated otherwise.

V. Executive Committee:

There shall be the following Officers, who shall constitute the Executive Committee of the Society:

- President
- Treasurer
- Sponsorship Coordinator
- Publicity Officer
- Tutorial Session Coordinator
- Workshop Coordinator

All Officers shall be elected at a General Meeting or co-opted by the Committee if no candidate is elected at a General Meeting or in the case of a casual vacancy.

The President shall call Committee meetings on their own volition or upon presentation of a written request by two-fifths of the voting members of the Committee. At least 24 hours' notice of a Committee meeting shall be provided to all voting members of the Committee. The quorum for a Committee meeting shall be at least 2 voting Officers, provided that one of them is the President.

No Officer shall derive any financial profit or gain by reason of their officership, including favourable rates on goods or services, unless the same benefit is available to any and all members of the Society.

Any member of the Executive Committee, except the President, may resign at any time by giving written notice or notice by electronic transmission thereof to the President. The President may resign at any time by giving written notice or notice by electronic transmission thereof to the Treasurer. Such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therefor or if the time is not specified, upon delivery thereof; and, unless otherwise specified with respect thereto, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

VI. Duties of Office:

The President shall:

- Serve as the primary point of contact between the Students' Association and the Society;
- Represent the Society to the University and the wider community;
- Call, chair, and set the agenda for all committee and general meetings, or nominate a suitable delegate to fulfil their responsibilities should they be unavailable;
- Oversee the smooth operation of the Society;
- Be a signatory on the bank mandate;
- Attend the Health and Safety Training during affiliation;
- Pass the associated Health and Safety Competency test;
- Review and submit all risk assessments on behalf of the Society to the Students' Association;
- Keep a record of the Society's risk assessments submitted during their term and pass them on to their successor;
- These duties shall be the sole responsibility of the President and may not be delegated to another officer except in the event of a vacancy in the position;

The Treasurer shall:

- Maintain records of the Society's financial activity in accordance with Association Guidelines;
- Maintain a full and accurate membership roll;
- Execute any resolution by the Committee to apply to the Students' Association for funding;
- Be a signatory on the bank mandate.

The Sponsorship Coordinator shall:

- Organise career-related events and workshops;
- Outreach to potential sponsors, recruiters, and industry professionals to create partnerships for the Society.

The Publicity Officer shall:

- Publicise the Society's events to members and the wider University community;
- Manage the online presence of the Society, including maintaining social media accounts (e.g., Instagram);
- Create promotional materials for events and workshops.

The DSA Talk Coordinator shall:

- Organise workshops and tutorial sessions for members to learn and practice algorithms, data structures, and LeetCode problems;
- Collaborate with other societies or external experts to bring in guest lecturers for specialised sessions;
- Ensure that resources (such as coding platforms or workshop materials) are available for events.

The Practice Session Coordinator shall:

- Organise tutorial sessions for members to apply the knowledge obtained during workshops, via group problem-solving sessions and discussions.
 - Ensure that resources (such as coding platforms or tutorial materials) are available for events.

VII. General Committee:

A General Committee member must be appointed by at least a 3/5 majority decision at a Committee Meeting by the Executive Committee members present at the meeting. Their duties shall be assigned at the time of appointment based on their skill set and strengths.

A position on the committee shall be held until the next AGM or resignation of the post.

Any member of the General Committee may resign at any time by giving written notice or notice by electronic transmission thereof to the President. Such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therefor or if the time is not specified, upon delivery thereof; and, unless otherwise specified with respect thereto, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

VIII. Finance:

Any debt incurred by the Society shall be satisfied by an equal subscription from all members. The annual subscription for Ordinary Membership shall be approved at a General Meeting. Two signatories of the Students' Association shall appear on the Society's bank mandate.

IX. Constitution:

A copy of this constitution shall be available at every committee meeting and general meeting of the society. Any proposed alteration must be passed by the executive committee and requires a 2/3 majority of members present at a General Meeting.
